DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

Applicant's amendment filed on February 1, 2005 has been thoroughly reviewed and considered by the examiner. In view of applicant's amendment, the prior art rejections set forth in the prior Office action have been withdrawn because the base prior art reference used in the rejection of the claims, Lund (Patent No. 5,277,219), does not teach the now claimed limitation of the hot water recirculation system including an electrical circuit sensor that is electrically non-invasive and is configured to detect operation of the electrical circuit proximate the fixture without drawing power directly from the electrical circuit. The other prior art references of record do not teach or suggest this limitation of the sensor being electrically non-invasive.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The claims have been amended to recite that the hot water recirculation system comprises an electrical circuit sensor that is electrically non-invasive and is configured to detect operation of an electrical circuit proximate the fixture without drawing power directly from the electrical circuit (claims 1 and 16) or that the detection of the operation of the electrical circuit proximate the fixture is accomplished without forming a direct electrical connection with the circuit (claim 22). The specification, however, does not teach or suggest the electrical sensor being electrically non-invasive. Therefore, the claimed recitation of the electrical sensor being electrically non-invasive is considered to be new matter. It is noted that the specification states that the relays (47, 50, 64, and 80) forming part of the electrical sensor each tie into power that is going to a respective light switch or appliance in order to activate hot water recirculation in line (20) via pump (30), see page 12, lines 10-14.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
